

Lotería Y Hecho a Mano Mercado

December 5, 2014 -

February 14, 2015

Join us for a Holiday celebration featuring La Lotería inspired artwork. Lotería is a popular Mexican game similar to the American game of Bingo where not only numbers but also images are on each card. This popular Mexican game and its images frequently appear in many pop- culture arenas, the deck of cards is illustrated with figures that represent everyday objects, plants, animals, mythical creatures and other characters. Artists have been asked to pick a card from the traditional or modern Lotería deck and create their very own unique version.

If you are looking for a special gift for the holiday season stop by our side gallery and gift shop that will be highlighting handmade goods created by local artisans. Hecho a Mano will be the perfect stop for any unique shopping list.
